

Arlesia Bailey, MBA

Senior Advisor

Arlesia Bailey, MBA, is a Senior Advisor with Genesis Health Consulting, as well as the Founder and Principal of Arlesia Consulting, a health equity and social justice consulting firm. Arlesia is a transformational and visionary leader with over 25 years in the healthcare field. She has a strong combination of business, operations, fundraising, advocacy, and social justice skills. Previously, Arlesia served as a senior leader at a nationally-ranked pediatric hospital, accountable to lead the organization's health equity investments, including a landmark expansion of primary care expansion into under-resourced communities, as well as $125 million fundraising campaign. Arlesia holds a MBA and resides in Seattle, WA.